IN THE RING WITH ROCKY

As I pondered what to write for this year's July article, I began thinking about what real freedom is. I concluded the greatest freedom any of us have is when we accept Jesus as our Lord and Savior and are baptized promising to be faithful to Him all our lives. As a songwriter of old said it, "Burdens are lifted at Calvary!" Because of what Jesus did, we all have the same opportunity of freedom no matter who we are, where we have been or what we have done. It does not matter where in this world we live. We truly become free – free of the burden of sin – when we give it all over to Jesus!

I share the following poem written in 1980 by Debra Bowman, the first person I had the privilege of baptizing. Debra was one of the teens I had in my group that summer at church camp at Allendale Christian Assembly! I hope it touches you the way it has me.

I love you all, Pastor Rocky

I AM FREE

It all started to be fun
When a strange feeling had begun
One like I'd never known
It made me feel so all alone

As one was being washed by water
I felt a force to be his daughter
Satan told me I wasn't able
But God said He'd turn the table

Tears flowed day and night
I was confused throughout this fight
It was all up to me
To be bond or to be free

At the chapel service that night
The decision was clear in my sight
I've made my decision to serve the Lord
And nothing can stop me; stick or sword

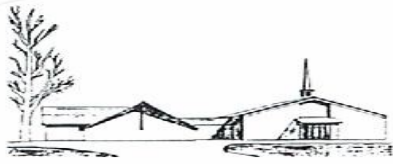

When I came out of the water
All my worries went to slaughter
I've got a provider for every need
I am so free, so free indeed
